The Book Club continue to 'meet' online by e mail monthly. For our August cyber meet we are reading Girl, Woman, Other by Bernadine Evaristo, Winner of the Booker prize 2019. This book is described as Britain as it has it has never been told, from the top of the country to the bottom, across more than a century of change and growth and struggle and life. Girl, Woman, Other follows twelve very different characters on an entwined journey of discovery.

We are hoping to meet up in the future months once again at the Rajdhaani to enjoy their marvellous dishes and enjoy life face to face. This is our seventh year now and members have come and gone all bringing their own unique understanding of the literature making each book we review memorable. The evening is always a great social, the book is the vehicle and guides our evenings but there is always time for each other, catching up on life and sharing fun and laughter. Book club tends to run on 8 to 13 members, numbers are a little low currently running on 8, so now would be a great time to join! Just give Merrinda a call on 07766834999 for a chat, why not invite a local friend along, you will be made most welcome.
